National Chung Hsing University of Department of Chemical Engineering Guidelines for Confirming Advisors for New Students in the Master's Program for Working Professionals

Revised and Approved in Departmental Meetings:

November 14, 2012

January 14, 2015

Article 1

To ensure balanced development and proper planning of resources and facilities, the maximum number of graduate students supervised by each professor will be determined through departmental meetings.

Article 2

From the announcement of admission results, new students may begin reviewing the profiles of professors, including their areas of expertise and research interests. Based on personal interests, students may arrange meetings with professors. Once a professor agrees to serve as an advisor, both parties must complete and sign the official consent form below.

★ Consent Form: Two copies should be prepared. One copy is retained by the student, and the other is submitted by the advisor to the departmental office for registration.

Article 3

If a student cannot confirm an advisor after meeting with professors, they must complete the following table with the names of professors they are interested in meeting and submit it to the departmental office.
