Article 1:

To promote exchanges between the department and the industry-academia sectors, relevant industry-academia experts are invited to form the Industry-Academia Advisory Committee (hereinafter referred to as "the Committee") to provide suggestions on teaching and research and to implement industry-academia interaction.

Article 2:

The Committee shall consist of representatives from the chemical process industry, relevant foundations, and academia. Faculty members of the department, based on the three major research areas, shall recommend 6 to 12 members. The term of office for committee members is one year.

Article 3:

The Committee shall convene once a year, with the Department Chair serving as the convener and chairperson.

Article 4:

The Committee's function is to provide advice on the department's research achievements, teaching curriculum, industry-academia collaboration, and development goals.

Article 5:

These regulations shall be implemented upon approval by the Department Affairs Meeting. The same applies to any amendments.
